* Regarding total price/ # of pounds: The number of pounds varies from animal to animal and year to year but the price is by the pound for what you actually get.

 Regarding pick-up date: Pick up date is approximate and is dependent on our butcher's schedule. When your lamb is ready, we will schedule a pickup date and time.

Orders are taken in the order received. Once we fill our quota for 2019, we will place names on a waiting list in the event we have more lambs than allotted (which is typically the case). We do not cash checks for those on the waiting list.
